voters, that there will be a registration of voters prior to the primary election this fall, such is not the case. No one who has come into the country or removed from one precinct to another since the regular registration last fall will be permitted to vote in the coming primary election, at which will be selected the party nominees for Congress from the southern Maryland district and for United States Senator. This is due to an amendment to the primary election law which was embodied in a bill introduced during the 1914 session of the State legislature by Senator Curran, of Baltimore. The first sitting of registration officers will not take place until September 22, which is one week after the primary election.
